Sports Ministries Award

Recognizing Obedience To
“THE GREAT COMMAND”
By Consistent Spiritual Outreach Through Athletics

W HEREAS the Board of Directors of the National Christian College Athletic Association has established the SPORTS MINISTRIES AWARD for the purpose of recognizing member institutions and/or individuals for significant spiritual outreach through the utilization of athletic ministries, and

W HEREAS Saint Louis Christian College, Florissant, Missouri, has been a pace setter in inner-city outreach and prison ministry through sports witnessing and work programs by sharing their Christian faith. Athletic teams are used as a vehicle to reach out to urban communities and prisons by providing an environment where the element of sport sets the stage for the sharing of the Gospel. Having had Saint Louis Christian College students in a setting for training in Sports Outreach Ministry that can be duplicated by students in other cross-cultural urban communities is a tremendous educational tool, therefore

B IT DECLARED that on this 21st day of May, 1999, the 10th National Christian College Athletic Association SPORTS MINISTRIES AWARD is presented to Saint Louis Christian College, Florissant, Missouri, for several years of resourceful spiritual outreach through its teams under the leadership of athletic director, Danny Wolford.
